11. READING COMPREHENSION (25 M)

Read the following passage, then answer the questions below:

One evening last month, my wife and I were sitting at home. She was watching television while I was reading a story. Suddenly, we heard a loud noise. I supposed that the lady in the flat above us was moving the furniture about. My wife was afraid that the noise would wake the baby. We heard someone calling for help. I ran upstairs. The old lady's door was shut but I could see smoke coming through the letter box and under the door. "The flat is on fire" I shouted down to my wife. " Call the fire brigade."

I knocked on the door but the lady took a long time to answer. Finally, she opened. " I was having a bath, when the water heater blew out "She said. " Why didn't you open the door?" I asked her. " I was getting dressed. "She said. I took her downstairs to our flat. Then, I went inside the old lady's flat and turned the gas off to prevent another explosion.

When I got back to my flat, the fire chief was asking some questions. I understood that the fire was not serious and the firemen were already putting it out. When they left, my wife went up with the old lady to clear up the mess. When she returned, my wife remarked, "It's all right now. Nothing was damaged except the heater. But wasn't it lucky that the baby slept through all that noise?"

-----Summary Making 10 m

We sometimes believe that money only can make a person happy, but this is not true because money is not everything in life. We often notice that some rich people lead a miserable life because they depend on money only. They do not have friends besides they look down upon others.

In fact, they can have expensive clothes, fashionable houses, tasty food and cars. However, money does not always bring happiness. On the other hand, some rich people are wise; the only way to be happy is to help the poor by giving them aids and money, and to use part of their wealth for the good of others. They help in building schools, hospitals and clubs for young people. They also pay Zakat for the poor and share in the country's progress. Therefore, they can enjoy their wealth

In four sentences of your own write down how we can lead a happy life.4x2 1/2

1v-Translation (15 M)

A) Translate the following into good Arabic : (10 M)

The environment we live in means everything around us. It means air, water and land. If any part of these is polluted, this means a great danger to us. We breathe air and can't do without it. Polluted air can cause serious diseases. If water is polluted, it will harm all living creatures. So, we must keep our environment clean.
